What's New In Mixero?

Mixero is a new Twitter client for people who value their time. Features - Works with Twitter account data from the date of last update to today; - Works with specific folder structure from Twitter's API; - Works with RSS feeds from Twitter's API; - Filters inbuilt lists and account timelines; - Timeline previews; - Following and favourite suggestions; - Quick replies; - Supports full-screen and night mode; - Works with the Twitter website as a separate view; - Works with other applications as a standalone view, including Skype and Facebook; - New layout and widget creation tool. Some hotfixes for comments: -Fixed bug where preview in chats would open in a web browser. -Added "Slow" and "Slow Down" filters for timelines. -Updated images. -Updated description and credits. Twitter Search is great, but also there are many other Twitter clients as well, like JumpLines. We've built a Twitter Search Client that brings it all to you: - Search Twitter when you need it. - The #stuck in a one second looping video is enough, we don't need to see if there's an actual video. - Search all retweets with one search in the #retweets: twitter.com/search/Q... - Search all retweets from the past 24 hours (time range). twitter.com/search/Q... - Many more features.. The business use for this would be to find hashtags that they could use in their campaigns. The security and passcode-based options will allow you to add as many accounts as you'd like, as well as set up your own pin. The media library/directory allows for you to store your files directly in the app, or use Dropbox or Google Drive. I added a feature that allows you to embed your favorite movies and TV shows directly into your tweets. All of this is accessible from your home screen, and it's really easy to use. My favorite feature is the "Stick" feature. (Be sure to check it out on the linked website). This allows you to pin your Twitter client to your home screen, and you'll be able to access your account directly from it. You can be just as useful with Twitter Search just by clicking the "Stick" button. I'
