are patient and contribute to the community. Scam is why they need $20/month. Sellers have a degree of control over the system and I suspect that they do even more in the "DarkMarket". I have sold a few items. The buyer was a lawyer who just moved to the Bay Area. She asked if I could find her a short term sublet in the area. I found her one and she paid promptly. I've done a couple of favors for family and friends. One person asked for a discount on an item and I passed this on to the seller. I've also done two things for the sellers. I've contacted the seller and asked if I could move
